MARYLAND GAZETTE,

Containing the lateſt Advices foreign and domeſtic.

THURSDAY, January 15, 1761.

LONDON, October 11.

THE Fox Packet Boat, Capt. Broad, is arrived at Falmouth from the Groyne in four Days Paſſage, with Diſpatches from the Earl of Briſtol, at Madrid, by which we learn, that Maria Ame- Queen of Spain, Died the firſt Inſtant. She born the 24th of November, 1724, and was ried to the preſent King of Spain, then King Naples and Sicily, June 19, 1738.

The late glorious Acquiſition in North-America, out Bloodſhed, can never be enough extolled. re will now remain no Neceſſity for any great- umber of Troops, in thoſe Parts, than to gar- Quebec, Montreal, and ſome other Poſts, the Army may, and very probably will, be ported to the South, and attempt the Reduc- of the only remaining Colony of the French he Miſſiſippi; which is far from being incon- rable. 'Till that is effected, there can be but Hopes of quieting the Indians at the Back outh-Carolina and Georgia, as the French will r ceaſe to ſpirit them up to commit Ravages hoſe Colonies; which will be as much expoſed ew-York hath hitherto been, and are much able to oppoſe the Attempts of the French, to Poſſeſſion of them.

October 12. Some deſperate Stroke is meditating aſt the Enemy. A large Fleet has been ſome collecting at Spithead and Plymouth, for rvation, as then ſaid; it now turns out to be ed upon ſome important Expedition; the afe ready for Sea, the Tranſports nearly ſo, of the Troops embarked, and the Remainder be ſo by the Beginning of next Week, amount- in the Whole, 1000 Horſe included, to full oo Men. For this Service on Saturday laſt Pieces of Braſs Ordnance ſet out for Portſ- th to be embarked, viz. 29 Twenty-four Poun- , and 11 Six-pounders; the former drawn each 1 Horſes, and the latter by ſix, accompanied ome Waggons, and ſpare Carriages.

nd Yeſterday Morning ſeveral Waggons laden Pick-axes, Spades, Wheel-barrows, and en- ching Tools, ſet out for the ſame Place, under oper Eſcort for Embarkation.

Part of the large Battering Cannon are com- d of thoſe lately brought from Cherburgh.

unday there was a very numerous Court at ſington of Nobility, Gentry, and Foreign Mini- , to congratulate his Majeſty on the Reduction Montreal. The Guns at the Tower and in St. es's Park were fired, and at Night there were fires and other Demonſtrations of Joy.

October 13. It is ſaid that Tueſday the third alion of the firſt Regiment of Foot Guards, rtered in the Tower, received Orders to hold nſelves in Readineſs to march in ten Days e.

ueſday a great Quantity of Hay was ſhipped Tower-wharf, and more is contracted for. e hear that an Order is likewiſe ſent from the iralty for all the Sea Officers to repair to ſmouth immediately, to take their Stations oard their reſpective Ships. There are 160 of Tranſports taken up, who are to take four ths Proviſion with them.

eſterday the Remainder of the Artillery was from the Tower for Portſmouth.

he ſame Day ſeveral Waggons were loaded Gun-powder on the Tower-wharf, and ſent r a ſtrong Guard for Portſmouth. On this aſion both the Gates leading to the Tower- rf were ſhut, and the Centinels had Orders to r no Perſon to paſs or re-paſs while the Wag- s were loading.

On Thurſday the Camp at Wincheſter began to ak up, when the Left Brigade, conſiſting of Glouceſterſhire, and Bedfordſhire Regiments, rched off on their Route to their reſpective Counties. The Militia Regiment on the Right, viz. the Dorſetſhire, and Berkſhire, will march, on the ſame Deſtination, before the End of the Week: But Effingham's remains for Embarkation, and will be joined immediately by four Regiments of Regulars and one Battalion of Guards, who will all encamp for a ſhort Time on the Ground juſt left by five of the aforeſaid Regiments: After which they are to be embarked, with Effingham's at Portſmouth on the intended Expedition; Tranſports being prepared there for that Purpoſe.

Admiralty-Office, October 11. An Account is received from Capt. Colby, of his Majeſty's Ship the Thames, that on the 26th of laſt Month, fifty Leagues to the Weſtward of Tory Iſland, he took the Bien Aimé, a French Privateer Snow belonging to Dunkirk, of 160 Tons, 12 nine Pounders, 14 Swivels, and 112 Men, after a Chace of Eleven Hours.

Laſt Wedneſday Lt. Gen. Campbell reviewed three Regiments encamped at Barham Downs, viz. the 14th, 19th, and 21ſt; the two laſt of which have Orders for Embarkation.

Excluſive of the third Battalion of Guards which are going on the Expedition, we hear a Draught is to be made of eight Men out of each Company of the three Regiments which are at home.

The Battalions of the Foot Guards going on the Expedition, are ordered to march on Monday next.

Burgoyne's Light Horſe are to march forthwith to Portſmouth, to embark, on the intended Expedition.

We hear that four Regiments, will embark from Ireland.

It is ſaid his Royal Highneſs the Duke of York will have no command in the intended Expedition.

It is now ſaid that Lieut. Gen. Kingſley is to command the Expedition, and that the Colonels Draper and Crauford are appointed to command under him as Adjutant-Generals.

Thurſday twenty Field-Pieces, and ſeveral Mortars, were drawn out of the Tower, in order to be ſent to Portſmouth.

The ſame Morning 700 Barrels of Gun-powder were ſent to Portſmouth for the intended Expedition.

Thirty Tons of Proviſions are taken on board the Tranſports in the River.

On Thurſday two Waggons, laden with Shells for Bombs and Mortars, paſs'd through Wandſworth, for the Service of the grand Expedition Fleet; and the ſame Afternoon a Number of Cannon, Field-Pieces, &c. paſs'd through Mitcham for the ſame Service.

Several Meſſengers, Ordinary and Extraordinary, have been lately diſpatched to ſome particular great Perſonages abroad, upon the Succeſs of our Troops in America.

Capt. Dean, who brought Home the agreeable News of the Reduction of Montreal, has had a preſent of £. 1000 and is alſo to be promoted.

A general Thankſgiving for our Succeſs in America is ordered to be obſerved throughout the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, and within the Bills of Mortality.

We hear that the following are the Staff Officers deſigned by his Majeſty for the preſent Expedition, viz.

Major General Kingſley, Commander in Chief. Col. Crauford to act as Major General and to go ſecond in Command. The Hon. Colonel Keppel, to act as Major General likewiſe. Lieut. Colonels Horne and Reade, Brigadier Generals. Lieut. Col. Thomas Hall, Adjutant-Gen. Lt. Col. Draper, Quarter-Maſter-General.

It is reported, that this Expedition is owing to ſome Diſcoveries made by Admiral Rodney on the Coaſt of France, and that the Number of Troops to be employed therein, will be greater than was at firſt intended.

Various are the Opinions and Surmiſes relating to the much talked of Expedition. Some ſay Martinico, and others Louiſiana; but others think the Armament to be too great for either: On the other Hand, there are thoſe who think it was intended for a Diverſion on the Coaſt of France, to prevent the French from aſſembling another Army on the Rhine, under the Count de St. Germain, which would have greatly embarraſſed Prince Ferdinand, and have obliged him to make conſiderable Detachments from his Army to oppoſe it. If the latter was intended, that has probably been effected by the Hereditary Duke of Brunſwick croſſing the Rhine ſo unexpectedly, to the French.—However it is not improbable, that if the latter was the original Intent, as the Tranſports and all Neceſſaries are ready to embark, ſomething may be attempted that might not be originally intended, which Time alone muſt bring to Light.

The Country of the North Part of the Mogul's Empire on the Indus, where we have lately eſtabliſhed the Factory of Sunday, abounds with that valuable Drug, Saltpetre; where it is cheaper, although thought inferior to that Commodity at Bengal. But this Difference of Quality is ſuppoſed more owing to the Manner of Preparation than to its Nature.

We hear, that at the Council held in the King's Preſence, in which the Expedition now on Foot was finally regulated, there aſſiſted only Five Privy-Counſellors, viz. Earl Granville, Lord Preſident of the Council; the Duke of Newcaſtle; Lord Anſon, Firſt Lord of the Admiralty; Lord Ligonier, Captain-General of the Forces; and Mr. Pitt, Secretary of State. Lord Barrington, Secretary at War, withdrew on receiving his Inſtructions concerning the Land-Forces to be employed.

On Monday laſt Major-General Kingſley kiſſed his Majeſty's Hand, on being appointed to command the ſecret Expedition. This Gentleman, in the Year 1757, with the late General Wolfe, landed on the Coaſt of France to reconnoitre the Country.

Several Officers of Diſtinction have applied to his Majeſty to go Volunteers on the intended Expedition, and their Requeſt has been granted.

The Land-Officers going on this Expedition are under Orders to repair to Portſmouth on or before Thurſday next.

Beſides the Train of Artillery ſent away from the Tower, for the intended Expedition, Fifty Pieces have been ſhipped from Woolwich, ſo that the whole Train will conſiſt of upwards of 100 Pieces; and 700 Artillery Horſes are employed for that Purpoſe.

Yeſterday Morning ſeveral Waggons laden with Bombs, Cohorns, &c. went from the Tower under a Guard for Portſmouth. They had with them Six Pieces of Cannon, of a new Conſtruction for throwing of Shells; and 1500 Barrels of Gunpowder. Some of the Waggons were drawn by Eight Horſes, the reſt by Six.

The ſame Morning early Colonel Burgoyne's Regiment marched over Weſtminſter Bridge for Portſmouth.

The Third Battalion of the Firſt Regiment of Foot-Guards laying in the Tower have received Orders to have all their Arms and Accoutrements ready To-morrow Morning by Six o'Clock, in order to march from thence on the intended Expedition. Several of the Companies received their Camp Equipage Yeſterday. We hear that a Draught of Five Men was made Yeſterday out of each Company, in order to go with the above Battalion.

It is reported, that the Time for the Embarkation of the Troops on the Expedition, depends on the Arrival of an Expreſs from General Yorke.

What a ſhining Page will the future Hiſtory of England afford, when treating of the Years 1759 and 1760; Louiſburg, Quebec, and Montreal, taken taken in America; and all the Northern Part of that vaſt Empire reduced to the Obedience of GEORGE II.——Senegal and Goree confeſs the Britiſh Power in Africa.——Guadaloupe calls us Maſter ——The Battle of Wandewaſh in Aſia, informs the World what has been doing there;—and, in Europe let Minden ſpeak.

The Hon. the Eaſt India Company have appointed Colonel Lawrence, Commander in Chief of their Forces in the Eaſt-Indies.

Some private Letters from Paris mention, that the Court of France having gained Intelligence, that an important Enterprize was on Foot againſt ſome of their Dominions, Orders have been given for as many Troops as could be ſpared, to repair to the Coaſts that are moſt expoſed to the Attempts of the Forces of Great-Britain.

Kenſington, October 16. This Day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council aſſembled, waited on his Majeſty, and being introduced by the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Pitt, made their Compliments in the following Addreſs, which was ſpoke by Sir William Moreton, Knight, the Recorder.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, of the City of London, in Common-Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

PERMIT us, your dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, of the City of London, in Common-Council aſſembled, humbly to congratulate your Majeſty upon the ſignal Succeſſes with which it has pleaſed the Divine Providence to bleſs your Majeſty's Arms by Sea and Land.

The Conqueſt of Canada, ſo heroically began at Quebec, ſo nobly ſeconded by the Defeat and Diſperſion of the Enemy's Fleet upon the Coaſt of Britanny, and ſo happily completed without the Effuſion of Blood at Montreal; at the ſame Time that it reflects the higheſt Honour upon the Wiſdom and Vigour of your Majeſty's Councils, upon the Conduct, Fortitude, and Activity of your Commanders, and upon the Bravery and Diſcipline of your Fleets and Armies, is an Event of the utmoſt Importance to the Trade and Manufactures of theſe Kingdoms, as it is the only effectual Means of ſecuring your Majeſty's induſtrious Subjects in North-America againſt the continual Encroachments and unparalleled Barbarities of a reſtleſs and inſidious Enemy, ever more dangerous in Peace than War.

Deeply ſenſible of your Majeſty's paternal Goodneſs, in thus graciouſly protecting the moſt diſtant of your faithful Subjects, your Majeſty's grateful Citizens of London will ever chearfully exert thoſe Means, for which (under the Divine Favour) they eſteem themſelves indebted to your Majeſty, towards enabling your Majeſty to preſerve this valuable Acquiſition, and effectually to proſecute the various and extenſive Services of this juſt and neceſſary War, and to dictate to the Aggreſſors, the Terms of a ſafe and honourable Peace.

To this deſireable End, may the God of Armies crown the Juſtice of your Majeſty's Cauſe with repeated and deciſive Victories; and when your Majeſty ſhall have long enjoyed the glorious Fruits of all your Care and Labours, may the Empire of Great-Britain continue in your Majeſty's illuſtrious Race, in full Splendor and Security, till Time ſhall be no more. Signed, by Order of Court,

JAMES HODGES.

To which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to return this moſt gracious Anſwer.

I HAVE the higheſt Satisfaction in this freſh and ſignal Proof of your Affection to me, and to my Government, for which I return you my hearty Thanks. The ſame Union amongſt my People, and the ſame Ability and Valour in my Fleets and Armies, will, I truſt, under the Bleſſing of God, enable me, in the End, to terminate this neceſſary and extenſive War, by an honourable, advantageous, and laſting Peace. The City of London may depend on my conſtant Care for their Proſperity, and for the Extenſion of the Trade, Manufactures, and Navigation of my faithful Subjects.

They were all received very graciouſly, and had the Honour to kiſs his Majeſty's Hand.

After which his Majeſty was pleaſed to confer the Honour of Knighthood on Robert Kite, Eſq; Alderman, and William Hart, Eſq; Sheriffs.

Orders are gone to all the Sea-Ports, that no Packet ſhall ſail 'till the Departure of the Grand Expedition Fleet.

By the Contents of a Letter from a Gentleman at the Hague, there is ſome Foundation for a Conjecture that this great Expedition is undertaken to call the Dutch to an Account for their perfidious Behaviour in the Eaſt-Indies, and during the Courſe of this War, if they heſitate in the leaſt to make the proper Conceſſions demanded by General Yorke; and what gives this an Air of Probability is, that the ſailing of the Fleet will be determined by an Expreſs hourly expected from that Miniſter.

According to the laſt Advices from the Hague, the King of Pruſſia had diſpoſed his Army in ſuch a Manner, that a Battle between his Majeſty's Forces and thoſe of M. Daun was unavoidable, if the latter ſtood his Ground: So that they were in daily Expectation of hearing of the Event.

A Report having been current, that a Convict who was lately executed at Saliſbury had, at the Place of Execution, made a voluntary Confeſſion, that he was preſent, as a private Man in his Majeſty's Troops, at the Action laſt Year before Quebec, and did then, from a Motive of Revenge, fire twice at General Wolfe, and give him two Wounds, the latter of which proved mortal; we can authentically inform the Public, that the ſaid Report is entirely without Truth or Foundation.

A Letter from Cork, dated September 25, ſays, "Monday laſt a Spaniſh Veſſel put into Kinſale, the Captain of which ſays, the French Fleet had actually put to Sea from Toulon, but were ſo cloſely purſued by Admiral Saunders's Squadron, that they were obliged to put into Malaga, where they remained blocked up. The Captain alſo reports, that he met a French Privateer of 12 Guns off Cape Clear, which had taken four Prizes on the Station."

Part of a Letter by Way of Journal, from an Officer, in General Amherſt's Army, on the Banks of the River St. Lawrence, Sept. 5.

"Friday——At Night I was preſent at a Sight which quite overcame me: The Rangers brought to the Head Quarters a Number of Families, conſiſting of Old Men, Women, and Children, who had come in for fear of our Indians. As ſoon as they knew the General, the Women with a prodigious Number of Children, ſome at their Breaſts, got round him, crying out Les Sauvages, &c. He told them in French, they had nothing to fear, for he commanded an Engliſh Army; and his Orders were ſo ſtrong, and he was ſo fully convinced of Sir William Johnſon's Humanity, that none of them would be hurt by our Savages. The tender Manner in which he ſpoke to them melted me before I was aware, but, on looking round, I found all the Spectators in the ſame Condition.—Here was a Grandfather preſenting his numerous Offspring to the General, a Mother, with a Child at her Breaſt, and two or three at her Knee bawling and crying, the Mother weeping, while the Father was endeavouring to conſole them.—The General ordered Victuals and Drink for them; a large Fire was made before his Tent, and they ſet all around; the Men began to light their Pipes, and there appeared a Satisfaction in the Countenance of the whole: Many of them were ſent into the deſerted Houſes (for theſe Families lived on the other Side of the Bay) but a great many of the Women and Children choſe to ſtay at the Fire before the General's Tent, and indeed he had a very numerous Family.—The Cruelties committed on our Frontiers were at once forgot; every one was melted into Compaſſion at the miſerable Sight; and even the very Rangers, whoſe Hearts are none of the ſofteſt, ſeemed glad when they were ordered back without their Priſoners."

There are 120 Out-Pariſhes in Canada, and about 150 armed in each Pariſh. Which amounts to 18,000; in Quebec 700; Trois Riviere 350; Montreal 600: Total, 19,650.

October 21. It is reported, that an Embargo will be laid on all the Shipping in the River, till the Departure of the Expedition Fleet, which is expected to be Friday next.

Yeſterday Morning Col. Burgoyne's Regiment of Light Horſe was reviewed before the King in Hyde-Park. Exactly a Quarter before Ten his Majeſty entered a grand Pavilion erected under the Garden Wall, where were likewiſe preſent their Royal Highneſſes the Prince and Princeſs of Wales, the Duke of York, Princeſs Auguſta, and ſome other of the young Princes and Princeſſes, Lord Viſcount Ligonier, Lord Anſon, and a great Number of other Noblemen and Perſons of Diſtinction. His Majeſty expreſſed the greateſt Satisfaction at ſeeing their Exerciſing, in which the Manner of engaging both with Foot and Horſe, and retreating, was exhibited with the moſt ſurprizing Dexterity and Rapidity that can poſſibly be conceived. His Majeſty retired at half paſt Ten; there were near 20,000 Spectators preſent. As ſoon as the Review was over a Sort of Waggon wheeled round, containing a great Number of Balls, which were ſet on Fire, on which the whole Body rode off full Speed: The Fire occaſioned ſuch a Smoke, as to render all Perſons within a conſiderable Diſtance inviſible, and thereby the better enabled, in Time of Action, to ſecure a retreat. There were a great Number of Volunteers among them, that petitioned to go abroad, who were diſtinguiſhed by wearing Oak Boughs in their Caps; one or two of whom, in order to ſhew his Majeſty how dextrous they were, rode full Speed, and picked up a Piſtol from off the Ground, which was laid juſt before the Tent for that Purpoſe. The Fineneſs of the Morning added greatly to the Grandeur of the Sight.

October 23. The firſt fair Wind the Fleet will ſail from the Downs, which we hear, is ſwell'd to the Number of above 300 Sail, Men of War and Tranſports, for the Expedition.

The following Circumſtances might in a more ſuperſtitious Age and Country, be thought remarkable: That the 10th of Auguſt, on which Day our Forces embarked at Oſwego, under the Command of General Amherſt, to proceed to the River St. Lawrence, was St. Lawrence's Day; that the 25th of the ſame Month, on which we took the ſtrong Paſs and Fortreſs of La Galletta, was St. Lewis's Day, the Name of the French King and commonly reputed the Patron of his Kingdom: And that the 8th of Sept. on which the City of Montreal ſurrendered, was the Feſtival of the Nativity of the Virgin Mary, the Patroneſs of the Place.

Edinburgh, October 11. A private Letter from Bombay, ſays, that ſome of the Dutch who were made Priſoners at the Affair of Bengal, had confeſſed, that they were unworthy of the good Treatment that they had received from the Britiſh Troops; for had their Scheme ſucceeded, their Orders were to give no Quarter; and their Malleys Creſſes (an Indian Dagger) were all poiſoned before the Action began.

NEW-YORK, December 29.

Captain Aſhfield, who arrived here laſt Wednesday, ſailed from King-Road the 30th of October, in Company with the Captains Marſhal and Garriſon, in two Brigs, and the Ship Riſing-Sun, all for this Port; Capt. Fortin for Philadelphia, and ſeveral others for different Ports, in the whole 16 Sail, under Convoy of his Majeſty's Ship the Lowſtoffe, but Captain Aſhfield parted from the Fleet three Days after he came out.

We hear from London by Capt. Aſhfield, that the Mail for New-York was cloſed the 18th of October, and ſent down to Falmouth, to go by the General Wall Packet, who arrived from hence in 28 Days, but on the 23d Expreſſes were diſpatched to ſtop the Mail and the ſailing of the Packet, and likewiſe the ſailing of the Fleet from Spithead on the Expedition.

On the 26th ult. in Lat. 23: 32, N. Lon. 61: 15, W. Captain Thomas Lawrence, in the Privateer Ship Tartar, of this Port, fell in with and took the Letter of Marque Brig St. James, from Martinico to Bayonne, loaded with Sugar, Coffee and Cotton; but on Sunday the 21ſt Inſt. ſhe ſtruck on the Eaſt Bank, and beat over the Shoals on Long-Iſland Shore near Graveſend, where ſhe is bilged, and Part of the Cargo damaged.

ANNAPOLIS, January 15.

Laſt Sunday Evening, departed this Life, after a Week's Illneſs of a Pleuriſy, Mrs. SARAH HILL, one of the People called Quakers, Wife of Mr. JOSEPH HILL, near this Town; a Gentlewoman of a virtuous and amiable Life and Converſation. In all the Relations of Wife, Mother, Miſtreſs, Friend and Neighbour, her Deportment and Œconomy was truly exemplary; and Mrs. HILL may juſtly be ſaid to have had few Equals, but no Superiors. She was deſervedly eſteemed, and is univerſally regretted, by a numerous Acquaintance. And this Day ſhe was very decently Interred, a great Number of People, of all Stations and Denominations, notwithſtanding the Inclemency of the Weather, attending her Corpſe to the Grave.

One Day laſt Week, a young Man, whoſe Name was John Sanders, in attempting to croſs Weſt-River on the Ice, fell in and was drowned.

People now croſs South-River, Severn, Patapſco, &c. on the Ice; and the Bay appears full.

Thurſday Evening. Neither the Northern nor Southern Poſts yet come in.
